City Council Duties, Key Responsibilities & Necessary Skills

City Council Duties

The Sequim City Council is the legislative authority of the City of Sequim. The City operates under a Council-Manager form of government. The seven-member City Council serves as the legislative body of the City. The Council is responsible for setting policy, adopting the annual budget, adopting laws, determining the services to be provided and the funding levels for those services.

The duties of a City Councilmember will likely involve an average minimum commitment of 18-20 hours per month for preparation, participation, and attendance at various meetings and community activities. Beyond the broad duties previously mentioned, Councilmember duties include, but are not limited to:

- Attendance is required to regular City Council meetings which are held on the second and fourth Monday each month. Regular meetings begin at 6:00 p.m. Study sessions, if necessary, begin at 5:00 p.m. From time to time, the City Council or Mayor may call special City Council meetings to handle city business.
- Councilmembers are expected to serve on Council subcommittees, regional boards and commissions, and to represent the City Council at various community functions. These various meetings and functions occur normally during the evening but may also occur on weekends or week days.
- Some travel is expected locally, regionally, and/or within the State of Washington. Councilmembers may also, at their discretion, travel and attend training, education and/or participate in other organizations at the local, regional, state or in some instances on the national level. Travel, education and training expenses for local, regional, state and national activities are reimbursed in accordance with City policy applicable to all employees and City officials subject to the budgetary limit set for each Councilmember and for the City Council as a whole.
- The monthly Councilmember salary is $150 per month.

Key Responsibilities

- Participate with the City Council in setting policy to represent citizen views on public policy
- Hire, evaluate, and/or fire the City Manager
- Approve the annual City budget
- Oversight of City finances
- Work with the City Council to develop a strategic plan and goals for the City

Necessary Skills

- Work effectively with the City Council to represent opinions and viewpoints of the citizens
- Work with the City Council in determining the best decision for the entire community
